

New Rochelle Fund for Educational Excellence presents:

Anne Frank: A History for Today

Museum of Arts and Culture (MAC)

New Rochelle High School

An exhibit, on loan from the Anne Frank Center for Mutual Respect, featuring rare photos and historical events that bring Anne's story to life

- ◆ Join Sisterhood for a FREE event
- ◆ Wednesday, November 16, 2016, in the morning
- ◆ We will meet at Temple Israel at 9:30am
and carpool to New Rochelle High School*
- ◆ Discussion with Rabbi Nichols to follow

QUESTIONS— Feel free to contact Lauren Pekats at 914-636-6211 or lauren\_pekats@yahoo.com

*Anyone wishing to meet us at the High School, the Museum of Arts and Culture is located in the new wing of the school. (Park in the lot at the entrance near North Ave and Braemar Ave). Tour begins at 10 am. Enter at the new wing entrance under the pedestrian walkway. Museum is on the 2nd floor (elevator access if needed).

