

FROM OUR LISTENERS

Over the years, many listeners have written to express their appreciation, and many have contributed to the expenses. Listeners include people in hospitals, nursing homes, or homebound; Jews and non-Jews alike.

The following are typical of comments received from throughout the tri-state region:

- "I want to thank you for making it possible for a homebound person such as myself to listen to Temple Israel's services during Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur."
- "Your services are gems of reflection, inspiration, and spiritual renewal for me."
- "The High Holiday broadcasts touch the lives of so many."
- "Thank you for the spirit and hope that you bring to me during the High Holidays. Your services have been a fulfilling part of my observance."

BACKGROUND

Radio outreach from Temple Israel of New Rochelle is possible because of the combination of volunteer talent in the Temple and the cooperation of local radio stations. Since 1970, WVOX-AM, based in New Rochelle, has suspended regular programs on the High Holidays to broadcast Temple Israel's services by radio or by streaming on www.wvox.com.

Rabbi Scott B. Weiner, Rabbi Beth Nichols and Cantor Randall M. Schloss lead the High Holiday services.

A committee of volunteers handle publicity and fundraising for production costs and radio time.

Even if you can't come to services... Temple Israel of New Rochelle reaches over the air waves or live stream to bring its worship services to:

- The homebound ill and elderly
- Nursing home residents
- Hospital patients
- All Jews who want a few moments reflection in their faith
- Non-Jews who want to better understand the Jewish faith
